*Board of Trade, Whitehall Gardens,
July 10, 1874.*

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to confer the "Albert Medal of the Second Class" on:—

MR. DAVID WEBSTER, late Second Mate of the barque "Arracan," of Greenock, residing at Broughty Ferry, Dundee.

The following is an account of the services in respect of which the decoration has been conferred:—

The "Arracan," whilst on a voyage from Shields to Bombay, with a cargo of coals, took fire from spontaneous combustion of her cargo, and on the 17th February was abandoned by her crew, who then took to their boats and endeavoured to make for the Maldivé Islands. The boats kept company until the 20th, when finding the currents too strong it was agreed to separate after dividing the provisions.

The Master in command of the long boat then made for Cochin, the Mate in charge of the gig, and the Second Mate, MR. DAVID WEBSTER, in charge of the pinnace with four of the crew, viz., three men and one boy, made for the Maldivé Islands.

After two days Mr. DAVID WEBSTER's boat was injured by a heavy sea, and could not keep up with the gig, and lost sight of her. From this time the pinnace was kept working to windward until the 9th March, by which day the provisions and water had been consumed.

Shortly afterwards the crew cast lots which of them should be first killed to be eaten, and the lot fell upon the ship's boy HORNER, but WEBSTER, who had been asleep, was awoke in time to save the boy's life. After dark an attempt was made to kill WEBSTER himself, but the boy HORNER awoke him in time to save himself.

On the following day, WEBSTER having fallen asleep, was awoke by the struggles of the crew for the possession of his gun, with which to shoot him. Two hours later the crew attempted to take HORNER's life again, but were prevented by the determined conduct of WEBSTER, who threatened to shoot and throw overboard the first man who laid hands on the boy.

The next day one of the crew attempted to sink the boat, but WEBSTER mastered him and prevented further mischief. Two days later the same member of the crew again tried to sink the boat, and expressed his determination to take the boy's life. For this he would have been shot by WEBSTER had not the cap on the gun missed fire. Soon after, putting a fresh cap on his gun, a bird flew over the boat which WEBSTER shot ; it was at once seized and devoured by the crew, even to the bones and feathers.

During the next five days the crew were quieter, subsisting on barnacles which attached themselves to the bottom of the boat and on sea blubber for which they dived. The following day some of the men became delirious. One of them lay down exhausted, when another struck him several blows on the head with an iron belaying pin, cutting him badly. The blood which flowed was caught in a tin and drunk by the man himself and the two other men. Afterwards they fought and bit one another, and only left off when completely exhausted, to recommence as soon as they were able ; the boy, HORNER, during the time keeping watch with WEBSTER.

On the thirty-first day in the boat they were picked up six hundred miles from land by the ship, "City of Manchester," HARDIE, Master, by whom they were very kindly treated, and brought to Calcutta.

WEBSTER, by his conduct, was the means of saving the lives of all in the boat.

FROM THE
LONDON GAZETTE of AUGUST 7, 1874.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight;
 the 6th day of August, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for amending the law relating to the Extradition of Criminals," it was amongst other things enacted, that where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Act shall apply in the case of such foreign State ; and that Her Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order, and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in the part of Her Majesty's dominions specified in the Order, and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions, and qualifications as may be deemed expedient :

And whereas a Treaty was concluded on the nineteenth day of June last between Her Majesty and the King of the Netherlands, for the Mutual Extradition of Fugitive Criminals, which Treaty is in the terms following :—

HER Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, having judged it expedient, with a view to the better administration of justice and to the prevention of crime within the two countries, that persons charged with or convicted of the crimes hereinafter enumerated, and being fugitives from justice, should under certain circumstances, be reciprocally delivered up ; their said Majesties have named as their Plenipotentiaries to conclude a Treaty for this purpose, that is to say :

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Honourable Sir Edward Alfred John Harris, a Vice-Admiral in Her Majesty's Royal Navy, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister

Plenipotentiary to His Majesty the King of the Netherlands :

And His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, M. Joseph Lodewyk Hendrik Alfred Baron Gericke van Herwynen, Commander of the Order of the Netherland Lion, Knight Grand Cross of the Oaken Crown of Luxemburg, &c., &c., His Majesty's Minister for Foreign Affairs ; and M. Gerrit de Vries, Commander of the Order of the Netherland Lion, His Majesty's Minister of Justice,

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles :—

ARTICLE I.

It is agreed that Her Britannic Majesty and His Majesty the King of the Netherlands shall, on requisition made in their name by their respective Diplomatic Agents, deliver up to each other reciprocally, any persons who, being accused or convicted of any of the crimes hereinafter specified, committed within the jurisdiction of the requiring party, shall be found within the territories of the other party.

ARTICLE II.

The crimes for which the extradition is to be granted are the following :—

1. Murder (including assassination, parricide, infanticide, and poisoning), or attempt to murder.
2. Manslaughter.
3. Counterfeiting or altering money, or uttering counterfeit or altered money.
4. Forgery, counterfeiting or altering of public or private documents, including forgery, counterfeiting or altering of paper money, bank notes, or other public securities.

5. Embezzlement or larceny, comprehending any larceny that by the Netherland Penal Law is not considered as “vol simple.”

6. Obtaining money or goods by false pretences, including the crimes designated in the Netherland Penal Law as speculation, abstraction, or misapplication by bailies or public accountants.

7. Crimes against Bankruptcy Law which by the Netherland Penal Law are considered as fraudulent bankruptcy.

8. Perjury.

9. Rape.

10. Arson.

The extradition is also to take place for participation in any of the aforesaid crimes, provided such participation be punishable by the laws of both the Contracting Parties.

ARTICLE III.

No subject of the Netherlands shall be given up by the Government of the Netherlands to the Government of the United Kingdom; and no subject of the United Kingdom shall be delivered up by the Government thereof to the Government of the Netherlands.

With reference to the application to the present Treaty, are comprised in the denomination of “subjects,” not only naturalized citizens of the country, but also such foreigners as, according to the laws of either of the Contracting Parties, are assimilated to subjects, as well as such foreigners, who being domiciled in the country, and having married a citizen thereof, have one or more children by that marriage born there.

ARTICLE IV.

The extradition shall not take place if the person claimed on the part of the Government of the United Kingdom, or the person claimed on the part of the Government of the Netherlands, has already been tried and discharged or punished, or is still under trial, in the Netherlands or in the United Kingdom, respectively, for the crime for which his extradition is demanded.

If the person claimed on the part of the Government of the United Kingdom, or if the person claimed on the part of the Government of the Netherlands, should be under examination for any other crime in the Netherlands or in the United Kingdom, respectively, his extradition shall be deferred until the conclusion of the trial, and the full execution of any punishment awarded to him.

The extradition shall also be deferred if the person claimed should be detained for debt by a sentence passed before the requisition for the surrender, under the laws of the country where he shall be found.

ARTICLE V.

The extradition shall not take place if, subsequently to the commission of the crime, or the institution of the penal prosecution, or the conviction thereon, exemption from prosecution or punishment has been acquired by lapse of time, according to the laws of the State applied to.

ARTICLE VI.

A fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered if the offence in respect of which his surrender is demanded is one of a political character, or if he prove that the requisition for his surrender has in fact been made with a view to try or to punish him for an offence of a political character.

ARTICLE VII.

A person surrendered can in no case be kept in prison, or be brought to trial in the State to which the surrender has been made, for any other crime or on account of any other matters than those for which the extradition shall have taken place, until he has been restored or has had the opportunity of returning to the country from whence he was surrendered.

The period of one month shall be considered as the limit of the period during which the prisoner may, with the view of securing the benefits of this Article, return to the country from whence he was surrendered.

This stipulation does not apply to crimes committed after the extradition.

ARTICLE VIII.

The requisition for extradition shall be made through the Diplomatic Agents of the High Contracting Parties, respectively.

The requisition for the extradition of an accused person must be accompanied by a warrant of arrest issued by the competent authority of the State requiring the extradition, and by such evidence as, according to the laws of the place where the accused is found, would justify his arrest if the crime had been committed there.

If the requisition relates to a person already convicted, it must be accompanied by the sentence of condemnation passed against the convicted person by the competent Court of the State that makes the requisition for extradition.

A requisition for extradition cannot be founded on sentences passed in contumaciam.

ARTICLE IX.

If the requisition for extradition be in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the competent authorities of the State applied to shall proceed to the arrest of the fugitive.

The prisoner is then to be brought before a competent Magistrate, who is to examine him and to conduct the preliminary investigation of the case, according to the laws of the country in which he is found.

ARTICLE X.

The extradition shall not take place before the expiration of fifteen days from the committal, and then only if the evidence produced in due time be found sufficient according to the laws of the State applied to.

ARTICLE XI.

A fugitive criminal may, however be apprehended under a warrant issued by any Police Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, or other competent authority in either country, on such information or complaint, and such evidence, or after such proceedings as would, in the opinion of the person issuing the warrant, justify the issue of a warrant, if the crime had been committed or the prisoner convicted, in that part of the dominions of the two Contracting Parties in which he exercises jurisdiction: Provided however that, in the United Kingdom, the accused shall, in such case, be sent as speedily as possible before a Police Magistrate in London. He shall be discharged, as well in the United Kingdom as in the Netherlands, if within fourteen days, a requisition shall not have been made for his surrender by the Diplomatic Agent of his country.

ARTICLE XII.

If, in any criminal matter, pending in any Court or tribunal of one of the two countries, it is thought desirable to take the evidence of any witness in the other, such evidence may be taken by the judicial authorities in accordance with the laws in force on this subject in the country where the witness may be.

ARTICLE XIII.

All articles seized, which were in the possession of the person to be surrendered at the time of his apprehension, shall, if the competent authority of the State applied to for the extradition has ordered the delivery thereof, be given up when the extradition takes place ; and the said delivery shall extend not merely to the stolen articles, but to everything that may serve as a proof of the crime.

ARTICLE XIV.

The High Contracting Parties renounce any claim for the reimbursment of the expenses incurred by them in the arrest and maintenance of the person to be surrendered, and his conveyance till placed on board ship, as well as for the reimbursement of the expenses incurred in taking the evidence of any witness in consequence of Article XII, and in giving up and returning seized articles. They reciprocally agree to bear such expenses themselves.

ARTICLE XV.

The present Treaty shall come into force ten days after its publication in conformity with the forms prescribed by the laws of the High Contracting Parties. It may be terminated by either of the High Contracting Parties, but shall remain in force for six months after notice has been given for its termination.

The Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at The Hague as soon as possible.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Done at the Hague, the nineteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

(L.S.) E. A. J. HARRIS.

LONDON GAZETTE of AUGUST 11,
1874.

Her Majesty's Most Gracious Speech, delivered by the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Friday, August 7, 1874.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE time has arrived when I am enabled to release you from your attendance in Parliament.

In so doing, my first wish is to thank you for the readiness with which you have made provision for my son Prince Leopold on his attaining his majority.

My relations with all Foreign Powers continue to be friendly, and the influence arising from those cordial relations will be employed, as heretofore, in maintaining the obligations imposed by Treaties, and in promoting and consolidating the Peace of Europe.

The Emperor of Russia having made proposals for a Conference to be held at Brussels, the object of which is to lessen, by judicious regulations, the severities of war, I have, in common with other Powers, authorised a delegate to attend that Conference ; but, before doing so, I have thought it right to obtain assurances from all the Powers thus represented, that no proposal shall be brought forward calculated either to alter the recognised rules of international law, or to place restrictions on the conduct of naval operations. The recommendations which may issue from the Conference will have my careful consideration, but I have reserved to myself full freedom of action in regard to their acceptance or rejection.

Negotiations have been undertaken for the renewal of the Reciprocity Treaty formerly in force between the Dominion of Canada and the United States of America. These negotiations, commenced at the desire and in the interest of the Dominion, have been temporarily suspended by the adjournment of the American Senate. They will be revived at an early date, and it is my hope that they may lead to an increase of commercial intercourse between my colonial subjects and the citizens of the United States.

I deeply lament the continuance in Spain of disturbances which form a single exception to the general tranquillity of Europe ; but, while earnestly desiring the restoration of peace and civil order in that country, I believe that this result will be most surely brought about by a rigid abstinence from interference in the internal affairs of an independent and friendly State.

The Treaty recently concluded with the Sultan of Zanzibar, having for its object the suppression of East African Slave Trade, has been faithfully observed, and has already done much to put an end to that traffic as carried on by sea. The exertions of my Naval and Consular servants, in that part of the world, will not be relaxed until complete success has been obtained.

I am thankful to say that the famine in India has, as yet, been attended with little mortality, a result mainly attributable, under Providence, to the precautions taken by my Indian Government. The strenuous exertions of my Viceroy, and of the officers serving under him, merit my high approbation.

Since the close of hostilities on the Gold Coast, steady progress has been made in the task of pacifying the country and of organising its administration. Treaties of Peace have been concluded with important tribes, and the King of Ashanti has persevered in the discharge of his obligations to this country.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I acknowledge the liberality with which you have provided for the charges of the State.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I have seen with pleasure the considerable reductions which you have been able to make in taxation. The total abolition of the sugar duties will not only confer a benefit on the consumers of an article in universal demand, but will also prove of much commercial advantage to the nation. The removal of the duty on horses is another measure well calculated to encourage the trade and industry of the country. Concurrently with these remissions, and with a further reduction of the Income Tax to a rate which is little more than nominal, you have been enabled to make important grants from the general revenue towards services which, though of Imperial concern, have hitherto been defrayed, either exclusively or in an undue proportion, out of local rates. I trust that these measures, when their full effect shall have been felt, will conduce to the general prosperity of the country, and will impart increased elasticity to the revenue.

Although your Session has been unavoidably curtailed of a third of its usual duration, I observe with satisfaction that you have been able to carry measures of general interest and importance.

I have cordially given my assent to the Act "for improving the health of women, young persons, and children employed in manufactures." By this measure I anticipate that not only will the health and education of the classes affected by it be promoted, but that the relations between the employers and employed in those important branches of industry will be maintained on a footing of enduring harmony and mutual good-will.

I have readily sanctioned the Act for the reform of the system of Patronage in the Church of Scotland. I trust that the removal of this ancient cause of controversy may both strengthen the Church and conduce to the religious welfare of a large number of my subjects.

The Act for the better regulation of Public Worship in the Church of England, will, I hope, tend to prevent or allay the unhappy controversies which sometimes arise from the difficulty experienced in obtaining an early decision on doubtful points of law, and a definitive interpretation of the authorised form of public worship. Such controversies, even when they occur between persons loyally desirous to conform to the doctrine and discipline of the Established Church, beget serious evils, and their speedy termination by competent authority is a matter of grave importance to the interests of religion.

The legal measures which you have passed with reference to the Limitation of Actions for real property, the Law of Vendors and Purchasers, and Land Rights and Conveyancing in Scotland, as well as the Acts for regulating the sale of Intoxicating Liquors, and for carrying forward Sanitary Legislation in the United Kingdom, may be expected to be productive of public advantage and satisfaction.

The Commission issued by me for inquiring into the state and working of the law as to offences connected with trade has been unable to complete its labours in time to admit of legislation during the Session now about to terminate; and I regret that the pressure of business in the House of Commons has made it necessary to suspend the consideration of the measures for facilitating the transfer of land in England, for re-arranging the Judicature of England and Ireland, and for establishing an Imperial Court of Appeal. These subjects will naturally claim your earliest attention in a future Session.

In returning to your counties and constituencies, you will have the opportunity of beneficially exercising that influence which is the happy result of our local institutions, and I pray that the blessing of the Almighty may accompany you in the discharge of all your duties.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read; after which the Lord Chancellor said :

My Lords and Gentlemen :

By virtue of Her Majesty's Commission, under the Great Seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read, we do, in Her Majesty's name, and in obedience to Her commands, prorogue this Parliament to Friday, the twenty-third day of October next, to be then here holden ; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Friday, the twenty-third day of October next.

Board of Trade (Harbour Department), Whitehall Gardens, August 24, 1874.

THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul General at Tripoli, having reference to the alleged presence of plague on the Barbary Coast, from which it appears that a malignant form of typhus broke out in May last at Merj, a village of about 300 inhabitants, and about 80 miles from Benghasi; that there had been 120 cases and 57 deaths; that the disease had been declared to be plague by Dr. Laval, a Surgeon-Major in the French Army, who, in his efforts to stem the disease, fell a victim to it; that a sanitary cordon was placed round Merj by the authorities of Benghasi; that outside the cordon two or three cases of plague had occurred; that the fever was attributable to purely local causes, and that it has almost entirely ceased; that the Health Office at Tripoli has placed arrivals from Benghasi and its neighbourhood in fifteen days' quarantine; that the public health at Tripoli is generally good; but that at Malta, Egypt, and Tunis, no arrivals are permitted from any part of the Barbary Coast, and that consequently all means of communication are cut off.

The Board of Trade have also learnt through the Secretary of State for the Colonies that the Board of Health at Gibraltar have decided that arrivals from the Regency of Tripoli be ordered to quit the port forthwith, as well as vessels touching at intermediate ports from the Regency, and also that arrivals from ports eastward of Algiers are to be subjected to the same treatment.

FROM THE
LONDON GAZETTE of SEPTEMBER 22
1874.

Foreign Office, September 21, 1874.

THE Italian Minister in London has communicated to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of the will of the late M. Girolamo Ponti, of Milan, of which the accompanying document is a translation, by which he has bequeathed a portion of his property to the "Academies of Science of London, Paris and Vienna."

It is understood that the relatives of the testator intend to dispute the will, and as it does not clearly appear what British Society is indicated, the Secretary of State hereby gives public notice of the bequest, in order that those Societies which may wish to put forward their claims, may take such steps in the matter as they shall think fit.

Mr. E. S. S. Mildmay, the Acting British Vice-Consul at Milan, who is also Vice-Consul for Austria, reports that he has been appointed to support the claims of the Academy and of the Hospital at Vienna.

It appears desirable that any institution claiming the legacy, should do so at as early a period as possible.

DERBY.

(Translation.)

On this 5th day of the month of January, 1856,

I, the undersigned, Girolamo Ponti, son of the late Signor Giuseppe Ponti and of the still living Signora Maria Antonia Longhi, of Gallarate (a town of Lombardy), declare as the expression of my last will that, born contemporaneously with the fortune with which Providence has been pleased to endow my house, I have never ceased from my earliest infancy to take part in the vicissitudes thereof, and to act to the best of my ability in the limited sphere which, according to my age, was assigned to me, for its greatest increase, so much so, that at the death of my father, of ever lamented memory, every member of his family was in a comfortable and independent position. Having now for a period of about four years consolidated such a state of things to my full satisfaction, and the combinations having so worked that I, on this day, find myself entirely free and independent.

I dispose of the whole of what belongs to me on this day in favour of the three Academies of Sciences, of London (capital of England), Paris (capital of France), and Vienna (capital of Austria), so that my said patrimony is to be divided amongst the said three Academies, in equal parts, for the purpose of founding with the produce thereof the institutions mentioned below, after deduction of the following charges, that is, there shall be deducted from my patrimony : -

1st. The sum of 600 Austrian lire, and not more, for the celebration of my obsequies, and a capital sum corresponding to 30 Austrian lire per annum, to be paid to the parochial authorities of the parish of the Catholic faith in which my funeral takes place, in order that six funeral masses may be said annually for the aid of soul, on the day itself of my death, or the nearest one possible to it.

2nd. The obligations undertaken by me, and appearing in my registry and book of accounts, shall be discharged with the same precision as if I myself were still living, and therefore the salary due to the person or persons in my personal service, the commissions unexecuted, and other matters, as well as the annual provision of my father in favour of my mother, consisting of my part per annum, 666 Austrian lire 67 centimes, payable in two equal instalments, in advance, one on the 1st of February, the other on the 1st of July, of every year during her natural life. My patrimony consists for the greater part of mortgages, and taking account of interest, amounts at present to 865,000 Austrian lire, free from all debts, appearing in my books and from the dispositions of the present, the charges, that is, above mentioned. Each of the three Academies above named shall be bound to invest in a perfectly safe and profitable manner, the third part of my patrimony which falls to its share, and with the proceeds to institute two annual competitions for ever, in equal amounts, so that together they may correspond to the total sum of the proceeds of the respective quotas, free from any expenses which may happen to be necessary for the institution of the said competitions. Consequently, each of the aforesaid Academies will have to appoint a Committee fit to decide upon the grant of the rewards annexed to the two competitions, which are to embrace the following branches:—

1. Mechanics. 2. Agriculture. 3. Physics and Chemistry. 4. Travels by sea or by land. 5. Literature.

The object of the Committee must be to give the preference to whomsoever among the competitors that shall have advanced the sciences by the discovery of new and simple appliances, and this refers to mechanics, physics, chemistry, and agriculture; in regard to travels by sea and by land, whoever has distinguished himself by a long journey by land and by sea, or has been able to make propositions fitting to diminish the dangers inherent in the present systems should have the preference; in default of inventors and distinguished travellers, the Committee will turn its attention to the most distinguished publications of original works, or at least of translations from other languages of works upon the above-mentioned sciences and travels, including literature, that is :—mechanics, agriculture, physics, chemistry, travels by land and by sea, and literature. Moreover the decisions of the Committee must be considered as final. The competitions, as I have said, are to be two in every year, and they are to begin one year after each of the above-mentioned Academies shall have received its own third part according to this present disposition.

Only natives of the country are to be admitted to the said competitions, therefore only native English by the Academy of London, French by that of Paris, and Austrian Germans by that of Vienna (I say again Austrian Germans).

If my mother should outlive me and have any claim on my estate I beg her to renounce it, but in case she should wish to enforce it she can do so, so far as she may by force of law, upon the patrimony renounced by me, diminished, however, by the equivalent of the annual provision in her favour as above. I declare that my personal effects, the furniture that I may have at the time of my death, and the books are not included in the above disposition. I leave them to the exclusive disposal of the Academy of Vienna, in order that, as regards the effects and furniture, the proceeds of their sale may be added to the third part of my patrimony which falls to its share, and as to the books, that they may be added to its own library or any other in Vienna which shall be chosen by it for public use.

Referring here to the deficiency of German books which will be found in my library, I will state that it has not been from aversion to that language that I have not provided myself with them, but from the impossibility of my learning it on account of ill health or the cares of life, and a proof of this will be found in the various translations from the said language, which will be met with among my aforesaid books. I declare that I am not at enmity with any one, and that from a principle of education well rooted in me I have never done or said evil to or of any one, wherefore I believe I have no enemies, but if I have made any I beg them to observe that it is without my knowledge and therefore to forgive me.

I declare, finally, that I wish to every one the greatest possible amount of welfare, but especially to my nearest relations, and that I have made the above-mentioned dispositions in the firm persuasion that every one of my said relations is in a sufficiently independent position, and to carry out in some degree the ideas which I have always cherished in the course of my life, by which, besides the particular benefit of my family, I have always wished to be able to do good to many, but have been, by various circumstances, prevented.

I have made this, my present testament, in haste certainly, but with clear and free mind, as the true and inmost expression of my last will, and all in my own hand.

GIROLAMO PONTI, son of the late Signor Giuseppe, and of the still living Signora Maria Antonia Longhi, both natives of Gallarate.

Addition.—I leave to the Local Tribunal the charge of appointing an upright and able person for the execution of my above-expressed will, notifying that the present writing will be found in a closed cover, with four seals in red sealing-wax. I say again four seals in red sealing-wax, of which three are outside and one inside, all bearing the initials of my name and surname, G. P., in Gothic characters. [* See the end.]

GIROLAMO PONTI, son of the late Signor Giuseppe, as above.

Second addition to my testamentary dispositions.

I notify that in the above-mentioned testamentary dispositions all the increments are to be considered as included which may have accrued to the time of my death from the fund of my present patrimony only (5th January, 1856). Any other acquisition, whether from maternal inheritance or otherwise, and the proceeds thereof, shall be considered as disposed of, as I now dispose of them, in favour of the Grand Hospital of Vienna, capital of the Austrian Empire, in order that they may be profitably employed, and in the most secure manner possible, in augmentation of its present endowment. The present addition is also made by me with fully clear and free mind; and I subscribe myself

GIROLAMO PONTI, son of the late Signor Giuseppe, and of the still living Signora Maria Antonia Longhi, as above.

NOTICE TO SHIP MASTERS.

Foreign Office, September 24, 1874.

IT has come to the knowledge of Her Majesty's Government that cases have occurred where British vessels, having been compelled, through accident or stress of weather, to put into Spanish ports, have, although not trading with any of those ports, been subjected to heavy fines and confiscation of cargo by the Spanish Customs' authorities on account of inaccuracies, however trifling or accidental, in the ship's manifest, the production of which has been demanded by the Custom-house Officers immediately upon the vessel's reaching port.

As it appears that proceedings of this nature are sanctioned by the letter of the Spanish Law, shipmasters are hereby warned of the difficulties to which they may be exposed when putting into Spanish ports under circumstances of the nature above-mentioned, should any inaccuracy whatever be discovered in connection with the ship's cargo or papers contrary to the laws of Spain.

VICTORIA, R.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith :

To Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor, James Plaisted, Baron Penzance ;

Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor, John Somerset, Baron Hampton, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath ;

Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor, Edward Pleydell Bouverie, Esquire ;

Our trusty and well-beloved Edwin Beaumont Johnson, Esquire, Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, and Major-General in Our Army ;

Our trusty and well-beloved Arthur James Herbert, Esquire, Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, and Major-General in Our Army ;

Our trusty and well-beloved Reginald Earle Welby, Esquire, Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath ;

Our trusty and well-beloved Charles John Foster, Esquire, Major-General in Our Army ;

Greeting :

WHEREAS by Our Royal Warrant, dated the twentieth day of July, in the thirty-fifth year of Our reign, We did cancel and determine all reguations made by Us or any of Our Royal predecessors, or by any Officers acting under Our authority, regulating or fixing the prices at which any Commissions in Our Forces might be purchased, sold, or exchanged, or in any way authorizing the purchase or sale or exchange for money of any such Commissions :

And whereas such regulations being cancelled, all traffic in Commissions became illegal, and any Officer or person buying or selling a Commission became liable to penalty under the Act passed in the session holden in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of King Edward the Sixth, chapter 16, intituled "Against buying and selling of Offices," and the Act passed in the forty-ninth year of the reign of King George the Third, chapter 126, intituled "An Act for the prevention of the sale and brokerage of Offices :"

And whereas by the Act passed in the session holden in the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Our reign, chapter 86, intituled "An Act for the better regulation of the Regular and Auxiliary Land Forces of the Crown," rules were enacted for compensating Officers in certain circumstances, by the payment to them of the value of the Commissions they might severally hold at the time of the cessation of Purchase in the Army :

And whereas, in Our Royal Warrant, dated the 30th day of October, 1871, in providing for certain changes then necessary in respect of First Appointments, Regimental Promotion, and Exchanges, We did premise that such provision was pending a more complete revision of that section of Our Warrant of the 27th December, 1870, which governed the promotion of combatant Officers :

And whereas certain Officers of Our Army did memorialize Us, alleging certain grievances which they stated that they suffered in consequence of the abolition of Purchase :

And whereas an humble address was presented to Us by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, praying Us to issue Our Royal Commission for enquiry into the allegations of the said Officers :

And whereas by Our Royal Commission, dated the 11th day of October, 1873, We did appoint Sir William Milbourne James, James Plaisted, Baron Penzance, and George Ward Hunt, to be Our Commissioners for the purpose of examining the allegations contained in the memorials of the Officers aforesaid :

And whereas the said Commissioners, in their report to Us, dated the 1st day of June, 1874, did represent that the question of compensation to Officers ought not to be dissociated from that of promotion ; but that the general question of the means proper to maintain the flow of promotion in the Army for the future was not before them :

And whereas an assurance was given by Our responsible Minister, that notwithstanding the Abolition of Purchase, a reasonable rapidity of promotion, not differing essentially from that which obtained before such abolition, should be maintained for the future :

And whereas it is desirable to make a full enquiry with a view to ascertain the best means of ensuring such rapidity of promotion, and making adequate provision for promotion throughout the Army :

Now know ye, that We, reposing great trust and confidence in your zeal, ability and discretion, have authorized and appointed, and by these presents do authorize and appoint, you, the said James Plaisted, Baron Penzance, John Somerset,

Baron Hampton, Edward Pleydell Bouverie, Edwin Beaumont Johnson, Arthur James Herbert, Reginald Earle Welby, and Charles John Foster, or any three or more of you, to be Our Commissioners for the purpose of enquiring into the said matter :

And We do give and grant to you, or to any three or more of you, full power and authority to call before you such persons as you may deem necessary, and to obtain information from them upon the subject of your enquiry, and of every matter connected therewith, and also to call for, have access to, and examine all such official books, documents, papers, and records, as may appear to you, or to any three or more of you, likely to be of use in affording you the fullest information :

And We do hereby require and command you, or any three or more of you, to report to Us under your hands and seals, with all convenient speed, upon the questions which by these Presents We do refer to you ; namely—

What rapidity of promotion should be considered as having obtained, on the average, in the several arms under the Purchase System ;

And by what means such rapidity may be best secured in the future with justice to the Officers of all ranks in those corps which were under the Purchase System :

And, further, in what manner adequate promotion of Officers to maintain the efficiency of the whole army in all its combatant branches may most effectively be obtained :

And, in what way the relations of the Officers of Our British Forces to Officers of Our Indian Staff Corps may be so adjusted as to do justice to each :

And We will and command, and by these presents ordain, that this Our Commission shall continue in full force and virtue, and that you, Our said Commissioners, or any three or more of you, may from time to time proceed in the execution thereof, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment :

And for your assistance in the due execution of this Our Commission, We have made choice of Our trusty and well-beloved Thomas Digby Pigott, Esquire, to be Secretary to this Our Commission, and to attend you, whose services and assistance, as well as the services and assistance of such clerks and other persons as may appear to you to be necessary, We require you to use from time to time, as occasion shall require.

Given at Our Court at Balmoral, this seventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the thirty-eighth year of Our reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,
Gathorne Hardy.

War Office, November 20, 1874.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the decoration of the Victoria Cross on the undermentioned Officer, whose claim to the same has been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, for his gallant and distinguished conduct during the late Ashanti War, as recorded against his name, viz. :—

Royal Engineers.

Lieutenant (now Captain) Mark Sever Bell.

For his distinguished bravery, and zealous, resolute, and self-devoted conduct at the battle of Ordahsu, on the 4th February, 1874, whilst serving under the immediate orders of Colonel

Sir John Chetham McLeod, K.C.B., of the 42nd Regiment, who commanded the Advanced Guard. Sir John McLeod was an eye witness of his gallant and distinguished conduct on the occasion, and considers that this Officer's fearless and resolute bearing, being always in the front, urging on and encouraging an unarmed working party of Fantee labourers, who were exposed not only to the fire of the Enemy, but to the wild and irregular fire of the Native Troops in the rear, contributed very materially to the success of the day. By his example, he made these men do what no European party was ever required to do in warfare, namely, to work under fire in the face of the Enemy without a covering party.
